Wakeful Children.

For a long time the two-year-old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N. Tenth street, Harrisburg, Pa. would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which qui eted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

LUXURY-Indulgence, or gratification of taste or sense without benefit other than that of pos-MECESSITY—Indispensable; requisite to con-entment; an object necessary to well being. INVESTMENT—The purchase of an article rom which an income is derived. PLEASURE—Gratification: enjoyment.

TO WHICH CLASS DO PIANOS BELONG! Most certainly not to the first class, for there is much benefit in a piano other than that of mere

THEREFORE, PIANOS ARE NOT A LUXURY. At first glauce it would not seem that they be onged to the second class, either; yet a plano is "A REQUISITE TO CONTENTMENT." A plano is also "AN Object NECESSARY TO WELL BEING." Yes, on second thought we believe that Webster would say that a plano was a necessity, especially to a well ordered household.

PIANOS ARE SURELY A GOOD INVESTMENT. The child derives a musical education that provides a sure, steady income, no matter what adversity overtakes it.

PIANOS ARE CERTAINLY A PLEASURE.

A piano affords untold enjoyment, and the grat-ification of knowing that you have secured your loved ones against adversity is certainly worth some effort. some effort.
